

ERIC B. LARSON

Eric B. Larson is the Non-Executive President of Olympia Development of Michigan, a real estate development company owned by Detroit entrepreneurs Michael and Marian Ilitch*. He is also founder, president, and chief executive officer of Larson Realty Group, a privately owned, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan based company engaged in real estate investment, development, asset management and leasing. Mr. Larson has over 25 years of experience in real estate and prior to establishing Larson Realty Group, served as vice president of a global real estate company, Hines, and as a partner and senior vice president with Bruce S. Brickman and Associates in New York. During Mr. Larson's career he has developed, financed, owned and managed over $4 billion of real estate including; General Motor's purchase and redevelopment of the Renaissance Center (5.5 million square feet) and Millender Center, the development of One Detroit Center (1 million square feet) and The A. Alfred Taubman Center for Design Education (1 million square feet) in downtown Detroit.

In addition, Mr. Larson has founded, and is serving as the President of the Community Investment Support Fund (CISF) which is a Michigan Non-Profit Corporation. The purpose for which CISF was organized is multi-faceted, but it engages exclusively in such charitable and educational activities as may qualify it for exemption from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The primary purpose of CISF is to promote economic development and the creation of wealth and job opportunities in low-income communities. This is being accomplished by promoting and facilitating the investment of both private and public capital in the form of equity or loans and providing operational assistance with commercial real estate projects, retail and wholesale businesses, service providers and business incubators.

A resident of Bloomfield Village, Michigan, Mr. Larson has served as chairman of The Robert C. Larson Leadership Initiative, Urban Land Institute (ULI) Detroit Governance Committee and Vice Chairman of the Detroit Parade Company. He served as chairman of Detroit Downtown, Inc., The ULI Detroit District Council, Detroit Downtown Partnership and The Detroit Business Improvement District. He is a trustee, governor and/or member of Detroit M-1 Rail, Detroit Entertainment Beaumont Hospital, Beaumont Hospital Oncology Campaign Committee, The Urban Land Institute, The Urban Land Institute's Leadership Council, LOCUS, Southeast Michigan

ERIC B. LARSON

Community Foundation. Mr. Larson is a past Grand Jester of The Distinguished Clown Corp, and past trustee and/or member of Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, The Building Operators Management Association (BOMA), The Real Estate Roundtable, The Detroit Institute of Arts Junior Council, Detroit Economic Growth Corporation, Pewabic Pottery Board of Directors, Detroit Historical Society Board of Directors, The Detroit Eastern Market Advisory Services Panel, Harvard School of Design Advisory Panel, mentor at The University of Michigan School of Architecture, Marian High School Dad's Club, University of Michigan – ULI Real Estate Forum Committee, The United States Green Building Council and Southeast Michigan Council of Governments.

 About the Ilitch Companies - Other Ilitch companies in the food, sports and entertainment industries include: Little Caesars Pizza, Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, the Detroit Red Wings, Olympia Entertainment, Little Caesars Pizza Kits Fundraising Program, Champion Foods and Uptown Entertainment. In addition, Michael Ilitch owns the Detroit Tigers and Marian Ilitch owns the MotorCity Casino Hotel.*

Updated: January 2012